

WEBSITE EXCELLENCE - 1ST PLACE
NEW PITTSBURGH COURIER

The New Pittsburgh Courier is committed to having a website that is very clean, understandable, and Pittsburgh-focused.

Our rotating banner of stories at the top are primarily Pittsburgh-based stories, because we know our readers want Pittsburgh Black news.

Then, there is a section dedicated to the latest Pittsburgh news, followed by a Courier staple that no other Black news website has — “Positive Stories in Black Pittsburgh,” a section which shows our commitment to providing our Pittsburgh readers with stories that inspire and uplift US.

The website then progresses to focusing on Pittsburgh Black entertainment news, before diving into general topics such as sports, health, business, etc.

We believe there is not a lot of “noise” on our website, which makes it very accessible to our readers. We want a site that’s free of clutter, and tells you very thoroughly what’s going on in Black Pittsburgh. We believe www.newpittsburghcourier.com is doing the job.
