During the unprecedented times of 2020, the AFRO continued to listen to our community and be the voice for the voiceless. We pivoted, connected and met the demanding needs, making sure everybody knows “We're Still Here,” fighting the injustices on behalf of those denied justice; not just for our community.

The AFRO hosted a live stream virtual discussion through the AFRO’s social media platforms that was also covered by other national media outlets. For this event, the audience engagement on the AFRO’s social media platform reached 39,200 people represented by 252 shares, 253 comments and 577 reactions from five states: Maryland, California, Texas, New York and Georgia.

The virtual discussion panelists included: Bakari Sellers, Hill Harper, Dr. Jamal Bryant, John Lewis, Zack McDaniel and moderated by Mark Thompson.
